CONFIDENTIALTY STATEMENT

New Hope Resource Center is dependent upon a climate of mutual caring and trust between volunteers and the clients we serve. To maintain that trust, we strive to protect the privacy of every individual. Personal information about clients (i.e. income, medical care, age, family situations or details about lifestyles) should NOT be disclosed to anyone except the Program Director unless absolutely necessary to protect the safety or well-being of the client.

I understand and agree to observe the confidentiality policy.

Funded by Spokane County Community Development Block Grant and Spokane County Churches.

The New Hope Resource Center is a faith-based ecumenical social service organization. We are supported by local Christian churches and by generous community contributions. Our mission is to serve basic human needs in North Spokane County including the communities of Riverside, Elk, Chattaroy, Colbert and Mead. We do this without prejudice or discrimination, following Christ's example.

We (NHRC) accept anyone and everyone as volunteers because we are a Christian organization following Christ's example as stated in our mission statement. We ask our volunteers to do nothing to impede or interfere by action or deed with the mission of NHRC.

Liability Waiver

I hereby acknowledge that while receiving services, volunteering or participating in any program associated with North County Food Pantry or New Hope Resource Center I do so at my own risk. I waive all claim of liability against these organizations, their officers, contributors, volunteers and affiliated organizations including growers and suppliers for any claims, demands, damages or injuries I may incur from consuming or being exposed to any product located at or obtained from the North County Food Pantry.
